

I feel that xm radio is a big plus for me as someone in the car all day long and can listen to the music I choose. By listening to different channels I can tell that the weather and traffic channels are a big plus to truck drivers who are heading into different towns and can get weather and trafffic hours ahead before they run into severe weather or traffic.